As I have said above, almost nothing about the family, except the lines of the Boston families, has appeared in print, and I have found only a few persons who had more than vague and inaccurate information about their ancestry. The lines from William Ticknor, as well as those of some other Sharon families, are given here for the first time, these never having been investigated before, as far as I know. I have also had the probate and surrogate records and deeds searched in New England and in New York State, and have endeavored to obtain vital statistics where these existed. The chief source, however, of the records given here has been family records, many of them dating back nearly 150 years, without which the compilation of this work would have been impossible.

Mr. Frank Allen Ticknor of Austin, Minn., was much interested in a genealogy of the family, and carried on much correspondence, chiefly in 1911, with a view to publishing the results of his work. Part of this was already in type, but his illness and death prevented the completion. I am much indebted to his widow for the loan of his papers, of which I have made considerable use, they dealing chiefly with the descendants of Eliza Ticknor.

I also wish to thank the numerous members of the family who have shown their interest by sending in records, and giving willing and liberal help to me. Without such co-operation this work would have been impossible. An examination of this book will show who the descendants are.

It is to be regretted that fifty persons have not replied to repeated requests. I am sorry that I have been unable to interest them enough to send in their own family record. Their failure is probably due to the fact that others, whose names I might have learned from them, have had no opportunity to be included here. If any of these are disappointed with the result, so far as this work concerns them, let the blame be placed where it belongs.

This work is the result of research and correspondence extending over several years, and the amount of labor and time consumed can only be appreciated by others similarly interested. I am not a Ticknor myself, but married into the family, and it was due to my interest in searching for full records of my wife's ancestors that the beginning of this work was made. One thing led to another, with the result that I can now say that this genealogy is as complete and full as I can make it. I have written every person named Ticknor in this country, whose name and address could be obtained from a country-wide search of directories and from inquiry of clerks of towns having no directories, where there was reason to believe anyone of the name might have lived. I have also had the probate and surrogates' records and deeds searched in New England and in New York State, and have endeavored to obtain vital statistics where these existed. The chief source, however, of the records given here has been family records, many of them dating back nearly 150 years, without which the compilation of this work would have been impossible.

Re June 18-1919

This work is the result of research and correspondence extending over several years, and the amount of labor and time consumed can only be appreciated by others similarly interested. I am not a Tinknor myself, but married into the family, and it was due to my interest in searching for full records of my wife's ancestors that the beginning of this work was made. One thing led to another, with the result that I can now say that this genealogy is as complete and full as I can make it. I have written every person named Tinknor in this country, whose name and address could be obtained from a county-wide search of directories and from inquiry of clerks of towns having no directories, where there was reason to believe anyone of the name might have lived. I have also had the probate and surrogate records and deeds searched in New England and in New York State, and have endeavored to obtain vital statistics where these existed. The chief source, however, of the records given here has been family records, many of them dating back nearly 100 years, without which the completion of this work would have been impossible.

As I have said above, almost nothing about the family except the lines of the Boston families, has appeared in print, and I have found only a few persons who had more than vague and inaccurate information about their ancestry. The lines from William Tinknor, as well as those of some other Boston families, are given here for the first time, those never having been investigated before, as far as I know.

Mr. Frank Allen Tinknor of Austin, Minn., was much interested in a genealogy of the family, and carried on much correspondence, chiefly in 1911, with a view to publishing the results of his work. Part of this was already in type, but his illness and death prevented the completion. I am much indebted to his widow for the loan of his papers, of which I have made considerable use, they dealing chiefly with the descendants of Elias Tinknor.

I also wish to thank the numerous members of the family who have shown their interest by sending in records, and giving willing and liberal help to me. Without such co-operation this work would have been impossible. An examination of this book will show who these persons are.

It is to be much regretted that about fifty persons have not replied to repeated inquiries. I am sorry that I have been unable to interest them even enough to send in their own family records. Their failure to reply probably means that others, whose names I might have learned from them, have had no opportunity to be included here. If any of these persons are disappointed with the result, so far as this work concerns them, let the blame be placed where it belongs.

Of course, I make no claim to perfection in this work. I have, of course, used great care to be accurate, to make no positive statements without sufficient proof, and to express a doubt whenever I had one. I can only say that I sincerely hope that few errors will be found here. I will ask anyone who finds inaccuracies to bear in mind that sometimes my informant may be inaccurate or mistaken, that family records in this family frequently differ and even are inconsistent, and that no vital statistics whatever exist as to parts of the family.

A few general remarks about the family are not out of place. With inconsiderable exceptions, all were, or are, honest, God-fearing people, and good citizens, doing their duty whatever their station in life. The military record of the family is one of which it may well be proud. Nearly every male of military age has served in each of the principal wars in which this country has been engaged. Each present member of the family, except in one small line, has an ancestor who fought in the Revolution. Every descendant has at least one forbear who fought in one of the Colonial Wars, as William Ticknor himself was a sergeant in King Philip's War, and several descendants took part in later wars. Several served in the War of 1812, one (as far as I can learn) in the War with Mexico, thirty-six in the Civil War, one of these fighting for the Confederacy, and one in the War with Spain, while fourteen (my records being incomplete) took part in the War with Germany. I have made a point of obtaining as complete military records as possible, the data given here being entirely from the Adjutant General's reports of the different states, the soldier himself, or the records of the U. S. Pension Bureau.

Those of the family who might be said to have a national reputation are George Ticknor, the scholar and historian, William Davis Ticknor, the publisher, and Francis Orray Ticknor, the poet. Others prominent, at least locally, are, or were, "Col." Elisha Ticknor, well known at Lebanon, N. H.; his son Elisha, schoolmaster and merchant; Luther and Caleb B. Ticknor, physicians, the latter the author of several medical works; Benjamin Ticknor, Mayor of Renton, Wash.; Ezra Chadwick Ticknor, representative from Alford, Mass.; Louis H. Ticknor, sheriff of Sangamon County, Ill.; James Gardner Ticknor, judge of the Police Court at Lebanon, N. H.; George Ticknor of Keene, N. H., journalist and author; Almon Ticknor, author of mathematical works; Howard Malcom Ticknor, elocutionist and dramatic critic; Alanson Robert Ticknor, cooperage expert; Caleb Ticknor and his son, well-known hotel proprietors; Simon P. Ticknor, inventor of cotton gins; Thomas Baldwin Ticknor, Benjamin Holt Ticknor, and the latter's son of the same name, all publishers; Caroline Ticknor, author and writer; Arthur Anderson Ticknor, chemist; and also, undoubtedly, others about whom, however, I have only imperfect accounts.

I might add that, outside of my wife's immediate family, I have personally met only two persons described in this book, but as Central New York State is the nearest place to Boston where any number live, this is not surprising. It is surprising, however, that the name of Ticknor has almost disappeared from New England, and has entirely ended at Sharon, Conn., and Lebanon, N. H., and will end at Alford, Mass., which places, in the past, have been the homes of many families.

It is curious to note how seldom family names have been perpetuated in this family, as there are only a few cases in modern times when a father has given his own name to one of his sons. It also might be noted that of the names Theodore and Nathaniel, which are certainly not uncommon, the former is found only once, and the latter not at all, while common names like David, Edgar, Edmund, Edward, Frederick, Robert and Thomas are rare.

Let me assure everyone that I have not been searching for heirs to some estate, that I am not and never have been attorney for, or in any way interested in, or employed by, the estate of any person named Ticknor (except my father-in-law and his sister), and that I know of no estate of any such person awaiting the discovery of missing heirs.

In the course of my work, many records were obtained of families not descended from William of Scituate, and I have considered it advisable to complete these records and am glad to include them, although I admit I have made less effort in this direction than in the case of the main family.

I have added to these few words the preface written by Mr. Frank Allen Ticknor for his work, and regret that the limits of this one prevent my including various old letters, diaries, and reminiscences referred to by him. If he had any amount of data from the church and cemetery records he mentions, it has probably been lost, as I have never seen it.

In conclusion let me say that I will be glad to know of errors and omissions in this book. If enough material is received, (I hope it will not be in correction of errors), I shall print it in pamphlet form for distribution. In any event, it will be deposited by me with the New England Historic Genealogical Society, Boston, so that it may be perpetuated. Let us hope that data, for which I have made long and unsuccessful search, relating to the Mohawk Valley region, that genealogical void, may sometime come to light, and help settle some problems relating to families which lived there.

With best wishes to all of those who have helped me, I submit the results of my labor.

PREFACE.

I had many times wondered if the history of the Ticknors would be arranged in such form as to perpetuate their memory to the generations following, and should it so terminate, would the many incidents of the history of the late generations, that are yet in my memory, be lost to them. In my search through the homes and public records, I find a few instances of efforts made to provide, in print, family records. They give much assistance in compiling the genealogy of the race. I am greatly indebted to many of the families for their willingness and cheerful response to my efforts, and for their hearty co-operation in the completion of this work, I wish to express my thanks for these favors. I concluded to lay modesty aside and take up the responsibility which at my age has at times seemed to me an impossibility, so if there are errors or omission of names, I trust you may overlook the imperfections and accept the work in the conclusion that had I not undertaken it, it would never have been done. I am satisfied that it will become a book of priceless value in many of the homes of the present generation and to the children following. It was during the year 1911 that to perfect and authenticate the knowledge I had accumulated and kept in my own home, I visited and made search through libraries, homes, real estate and church records, and also head stones of the graves in many cemeteries throughout the New England and Middle States, obtaining such details as are enumerated herein, and having accomplished to my satisfaction what was desired, it would seem that without its publication I should have been remiss indeed to have neglected the reduction of it to print. It includes such matters of condensed history and incidents of each generation as were found and made of record, all proving the race to be men and women of character, builders and makers of homes, adding to the value and to the credit of the communities in which they lived.

Respectfully submitted,

Frank A. Ticknor.

FIRST GENERATION.

1.

WILLIAM<sup>1</sup> Tickner. The place and date of his birth are unknown. According to Savage he came from County Kent, and this is probably true, both because the name Tickner is frequently found in records there, and because many settlers from that region came to Scituate. As his son married a granddaughter of Nathaniel Tilden, former mayor of Tenterden, it may be that there was at least some acquaintance in the old country between these families. Various Tickners lived at Tenterden, and on the Isle of Thanet, they being mostly seafaring people. The compiler has not attempted any English research, and an examination of the comparatively few parish registers of Kent that are now in print has been unproductive. It would be a fair guess to say that William Tickner was born about 1633 at Tenterden or thereabouts. There were also Tickners in Surrey.

As no mention of him occurs in the shipping lists, he undoubtedly came over as a boy, being included in the family of some other person. Mr. George P. Ticknor relates that his father told him that the latter's grandfather came over from England when a child, that the vessel was disabled and floated about for many days until the supply of food was exhausted, and that it was decided to kill the boy in order that the others might live, but fortunately a ship was then sighted, help was received, and his life was saved. While this interesting tradition does not cover enough generations, and also while the identity of Mr. Ticknor's great grandfather is a matter of some doubt, it may well be that the salient facts of the tradition not only are true, which seems undoubted, but refer to William Tickner.

According to Savage, William Tickner was at Scituate in 1646, "or earlier", while Deane says 1656. On the death of his father-in-law, he succeeded to the latter's mansion house "at the Harbor", his farm being "three-quarters of a mile south-west from the Harbor". The compiler has not attempted to ascertain the exact location, but part of Scituate is to this day known as Ticknor Hill. He was engaged in "agriculture, navigation, and mercantile pursuits", and in 1660 had a warehouse.

The Plymouth Colony records give various facts concerning him. On March 5, 1660/1 he was fined 20 sh. for striking and abusing Joseph Wormall of Scituate. On March 3, 1662/3 he served on the jury. In 1668 he was made a freeman (Baylies says 1657), and on June 3, 1668 was appointed one of the three surveyors of the highways. On June 3, 1684, he was appointed one of the two constables for Scituate.

In 1676 he served in King Philip's War, in an expedition against the Narragansett Indians, being a sergeant in Gen. Cudworth's guard or "particular company". For an account of this expedition, see Bodge's Soldiers in King Philip's War, page 27 and following. This work, the standard one on the subject, contains no mention of William Tickner, but his service is mentioned by Deane, and is accepted by other authorities.

The date of his death is not known, and there is nothing on record pertaining to the distribution of his estate. If the absolute accuracy of the Scituate records may be relied upon, he died between Nov. 2, 1696 and Oct. 17, 1697, the dates of the marriage of his son and of the birth of the latter's daughter Hannah, the son being described in the former entry as "Jr.", but not in the latter one. The entry of the death of his second wife, in 1693, describes her as "w. William."

It is not known where anyone of this family is buried.

The baptisms of his children are found in the records of the Second Church, Scituate, (now the First Church, Norwell), and from his membership in this church, he belonged to the moderate party of Puritans.

He m. (1), "29th, 8th month" (Oct. 29), 1656 at Boston, by Major Humphrey Atherton, Hannah Stockbridge; bapt. Sept. 24, 1637, Scituate; d. John and Ann Stockbridge. She d. July 5, 1665, Scituate. The tragic deaths of her and her eldest son are thus described in the Roxbury church records: "July 5. There happened a very sad accident at Situate. lieutenant Torrey, having rec<sup>d</sup> order fr<sup>m</sup> the Governor of Plimouth (by reas<sup>n</sup> of the kings letter y<sup>t</sup> informes of y<sup>e</sup> Hollanders coming agst vs) to look to y<sup>e</sup> powder & ammunition of y<sup>e</sup> towne. He went into y<sup>e</sup> House of Goodm<sup>a</sup> Tickner where y<sup>e</sup> Magazine of y<sup>e</sup> Town was, w<sup>ch</sup> was but two barrels of powder & opened y<sup>m</sup> & while y<sup>e</sup> said lieutenant was drying some of y<sup>e</sup> powder, abroad up<sup>n</sup> boards & doores, by some accident, G. knows what, y<sup>e</sup> powder was fired booth in y<sup>e</sup> house & and that abroad, & y<sup>e</sup> house blown up & broken in pieces, And y<sup>e</sup> woman of y<sup>e</sup> House Goodwife Tickner miserably burnt esp<sup>ly</sup> on her belly (for it seems she was at that instant stepping up<sup>n</sup> y<sup>e</sup> barrell y<sup>t</sup> was in y<sup>e</sup> house to reach something) & a little childe also was sadly burnt & buryed amongst y<sup>e</sup> rubbish & Timber, but y<sup>e</sup> woman & childe lived sev<sup>r</sup>all houres after about 10 or 11. Also y<sup>e</sup> lieutenant was sadly burnt esp<sup>ly</sup> on his breast, face hands & armes, yet he lived till y<sup>e</sup> next day and then dyed."

He m. (2), in 1666, Deborah Hyland; d. Thomas and Deborah Hyland of Tenterden, who came to Scituate before 1637. She d. Aug. 20, 1693, Scituate. No children by this marriage.

Children, by first marriage, b. Scituate undoubtedly:

1. John<sup>2</sup>, bapt. May 15, 1659; d. July 5, 1665. (See above)
2. William<sup>2</sup>, bapt. June 26, 1664.

In 1710 he sold the farm to Job Otis for £400, a considerable sum of money in those days, and removed to Lebanon, Conn. JOHN<sup>3</sup> (William<sup>2</sup>,<sup>1</sup>), b. June 24, 1699, Scituate, Mass. He lived at Lebanon, Conn., where he d. May 7, 1851, but his grave-stone in the old cemetery says: "Here lies the Body of the well beloved Mr John Ticknor the husband of Mrs Mary Ticknor who departed this life May y<sup>e</sup> 17, A.D. 1751, in the 52nd year of his age." The distribution of his estate, June 14, 1755, mentions his widow and children Isaac, Elisha, Lydia, Hannah, James, Sarah, and Irene, and Amos Barrows, son of Mary Barrows, deceased. In 1751 his son John, in consideration of a farm "given me by my late honored father" released his rights in his father's estate to the other heirs.

WILLIAM<sup>3</sup> (William<sup>2</sup>, 1), b. Dec. 2, 1700, Scituate, Mass. He and his wife owned the covenant at Lebanon, Conn., Aug. 27, 1732, on which date their children Abigail, William and Jonathan were baptized there, and she was admitted to communion Oct. 5, 1735. In 1739 he settled at Sharon, and drew the 38th home-lot "next north of Mr. Sprague's, in Gay Street." In the same year he was chosen surveyor of the highway. Although his children are recorded at Sharon, all but the last were born elsewhere, as Sharon was not founded until shortly before his arrival. On Nov. 11, 1760, administration on his estate was granted to his widow, who gave bond in the sum of £1000. The inventory, amounting to L427-15-6, shows no items of special interest, but indicated general easy circumstances, and good farm and household equipment. In 1764 appears an agreement entered into by his heirs, "according to the desire of said deceased," under which the widow Abigail was to have her dower rights, and William, Jonathan and Daniel to have equal portions, same being "twice as much as the daughters have," the daughters being Sarah Bostwick of Stockbridge, Mass., and Mehitable and Anna Ticknor. This document bears the signatures of all except Anna, the widow signing by her mark. For several generations this branch usually spelled the name "Tickner".

He m. Apr. 20, 1727, at Lisbon, Conn., Abigail Heath; b. Jan. 6, 1703/4, Norwich; d. John and Hannah (Hains) Heath. After her husband's death, she and her children left Sharon, apparently staying at Salisbury for a time, as her daughter Sarah was married there. Perhaps they then returned to Sharon, as the above agreement, and the marriage of her daughter Mehitable, would indicate. On Mar. 31, 1764, she and all of the children except Abigail purchased jointly one hundred acres in the western part of Great Barrington, Mass., "known by the name of Shawenon", and soon settled there. She was living in 1791.

The next generations of this family are difficult to trace, owing to the almost complete lack of any records, except deeds and probates. The records of the Alford Congregational Church seem to have been lost.

Children, as recorded at Sharon, (except the seventh):

1. Abigail<sup>4</sup>, b. Mar. 11, 1728/9; bapt. Aug. 27, 1732, Lebanon; no further record found.
9. 2. William<sup>4</sup>, b. Apr. 1, 1730; bapt. Aug. 27, 1732, Lebanon.
10. 3. Jonathan<sup>4</sup>, b. Mar. 28, 1732; bapt. Aug. 27, 1732, Lebanon.
4. Sarah<sup>4</sup>, b. Jan. 30, 1735; m. ("of Salisbury") July 25, 1762, at Salisbury, as his second wife, Jesse Bostwick. Res., 1764, Stockbridge, Mass.
5. Mehitable<sup>4</sup>, b. May 20, 1737; m. Aug. 2, 1764, at Sharon, David Hall.
11. 6. Daniel<sup>4</sup>, b. Feb. 23, 1740/1. (Sharon records, as printed, say "David", but are apparently erroneous. Other evidence, such as the above agreement, clearly shows that there was a son Daniel, who must have been born at about this time, and there is no other record of a son David.)
7. Anna<sup>4</sup>, grantee, 1764; no further record found. Perhaps the name was Ama, the various records being difficult to read.

FOURTH GENERATION.

JOHN<sup>4</sup> (John<sup>3</sup>), b. July 15, 1727, Lebanon, Conn. In 1749 he settled at Sharon, Conn., "in the Great Hollow, on land which his father had previously bought." He was evidently a person of importance, as he was described as "Mr.". He d. Mar. 26, 1766, (g.s.); his grave-stone, and those of his sons Elisha and David are in the Sharon Burying Ground. He left an estate amounting to £401-4-3, his widow being appointed administratrix.

He m. Prudence ----- She was living in 1777, and probably d. by 1790. See below.

5. Eunice<sup>5</sup>, b. June 20, 1758; m. Aug. 27, 1781, at Sharon, Joel Strong; b. Mar. 22, 1764, Sharon; s. Josiah and Eleanor (White) Strong. She d. Oct. 13, 1791, Sharon.

1. Lucy<sup>6</sup>, b. Apr. 5, 1782.
2. Pamela<sup>6</sup>, b. Apr. 22, 1784.
3. Olive<sup>6</sup>, b. June 28, 1786.
4. Arelia<sup>6</sup>, b. Apr. 14, 1789..

(Amenia church records, (see N.Y. Genealogical and Biographical Record, vol. 33) give the marriage of a Eunice Ticknor, Apr. 28, 1776, to Samuel Rowlee. Who she was is not known.)

6. Anna<sup>5</sup>, b. Oct. 12 or 23, 1760; m., by 1790, Joshua Morgan.
13. 7. Benajah<sup>5</sup>, b. Nov. 22, 1762.
8. David<sup>5</sup>, b. Sept. 2, 1765; apparently unmarried; d. June 17, 1785 (g.s.). His estate was distributed, as of June 16, 1790, to Eunice Strong, John and Benajah Tickner, Mary Whitney, Anna Morgan, wife of Joshua Morgan, and "heirs of Prudence Strong, deceased".

6.

ISAAC<sup>4</sup> (John<sup>3</sup>), b. Nov. 1, 1733, Lebanon, Conn. He was a resident of Kent, Conn., at the time of his marriage, and until 1758, about which time he returned to Lebanon. In 1757 his name appears on the pay roll of Capt. Jn<sup>o</sup> Marsh's (of Litchfield) Company of militia. His will, dated Feb. 22, and proved Apr. 2, 1759, in which he describes himself as "of Kent, now of Lebanon", mentions his wife Mary, making a gift to her until his eldest son Isaac was 21, and his youngest son David. His widow and Elisha Ticknor, (evidently his brother), were appointed executors. The witnesses to the will were Isaac Bailey, Samuel Fuller, and Jonathan Clark.

He m. Apr. 1, 1756, at Windham, Mary Martin; b. Apr. 21, 1732, Windham; d. Jonathan and Jemima (Hebard) Martin. She m. (2), May 22, 1776, at Lebanon, as his second wife, Capt. Samuel Fuller. She d. May 22, 1823, aged 90.

Children:

14. 1. Isaac<sup>5</sup>, b. about 1757, probably Kent.
2. David<sup>5</sup>, b. Dec. 30, 1758, Windham; evidently the one who served in the Revolution in the 6th regt., Dutchess County, N.Y., Militia, (Land Bounty Rights), and in 1776, in Capt. Huntington's Company (of Norwich), and who d. "in the army", Aug., 1776, (Windham records).

7.

ELISHA<sup>4</sup> (John<sup>3</sup>), b. Dec. 26, 1736, Lebanon, Conn. He lived at Lebanon until 1774, when he removed to Lebanon, N.H., where he thereafter resided. He served in the Revolution Oct. 28 to Nov. 18, 1776, as lieutenant in Col. Jonathan Chase's regiment, again as private on June 11 and 18, 1777, as lieutenant June 27, and as captain July 4, 1777, all in the same regiment. This regiment took part in the expedition to Ticonderoga. In the census of 1790 his family consisted of two males over 16, four under 16, and six females, but three of the latter could not have been his family. In the census of 1800, it consisted of one male under 10, two 10-13, one over 45, one female under 10, one 10-26, one 26-45, and one over 45, but the youngest female was not one of his children, and there was one more unmarried son (Samuel). He was one of the signers of the declaration for the committee of safety in 1776, served on a committee to settle boundaries in 1778, and on a committee to adjust public expense relating to the Revolution, and also on other committees in 1782, 1783 and 1788, was elected

Howard in 1784, received one vote in 1790 for representative in Congress, and one vote in 1806 for governor. The town records of Lebanon describe him as "Lieut." as late as 1788 in most of the above references, and he is likewise described on the gravestone of his second wife, although, as stated, he had served as captain in 1777. He has, traditionally, been called "Colonel", but no record appears of his having held this rank, except his gravestone.

"The old gentleman was a good farmer, gentle and winning in his ways, and much liked by his neighbors. He had enough to live upon, but nothing more..... There was one farm of a hundred acres, and another of forty. The house was of moderate size, with two large barns; but there was nothing pretty or attractive in the appearance of the place." (George Ticknor).

He was the most prominent man of the Ticknor family up to his time. He and nearly all of his children had large families (he had one hundred twenty grandchildren at least), and the compiler has fortunately been able to give a very full account of their descendants, compiled almost entirely from family records.

Many descendants have been noted for their black hair and eyes.

He d. June 18, 1822, Lebanon, N.H. He, his second and third wives, and several descendants are buried in the South Cemetery, Lebanon. His will was probated at Woodsville, but the compiler has been unable to obtain a copy.

He m. (1), Nov. 25, 1756, at Lebanon, Conn., Ruth Knowles "of Truro, Mass." She d. June 21, 1771, Lebanon, Conn. The epitaph upon her gravestone in the Old Cemetery at Lebanon says: "This monument was erected by the eldest son of Mrs. Ruth Ticknor, wife of Mr. Elisha Ticknor, who died June 21, 1771 in the 36th year of her age. When you pass this stone, my beloved Brother, remember your Mother and Two affectionate sisters who lie by her side. They were named Ruth - the Elder - died the 25th of June, 1762 in the 4th year of her age, & the younger the 20th of July, 1769, in the 3rd year of her age."

He m. (2), Jan. 2, 1772, at Lebanon, Conn., Deborah Davis; b. Feb. 28, 1749/50, Lebanon, Conn.; d. Samuel and Alice (Swift) Davis. She was descended from John Howland and John Tilley of the Mayflower, and from other prominent members of the Plymouth Colony. (See Swift Genealogy by George H. Swift, 1900, pp. 2, 3, 6, 13; and Howland, Chipman and Skiff genealogies). She d. July 19, 1804, aged 55 (g.s. which describes her husband as "Lt.").

He m. (3), Oct. 27, 1805, at Lebanon, N.H., Mrs. Martha Leonard, a widow. She d. June 1, 1823, Lebanon, aged 84 (g.s.).

All descendants spell the name "Ticknor".

JAMES<sup>4</sup> (John<sup>3</sup>), b. Sept. 27, 1742, Lebanon, Conn. Res., Lebanon. His name appears on the payroll, Sept., 1776, of Capt. Daniel Dewey's Company. The Census of 1790 states that his family consisted of one male over 16, and three females. The Census of 1800 gives two males over 45, one male 10-16, one under 10, one female over 45, and one 26-45. Deane says he d. 1812 without children.

He m. Apr. 15, 1773, at Windham, Lydia Moulton of Windham. No further record found of her.

No record found of any children.

WILLIAM<sup>4</sup> (William<sup>3</sup>), b. Apr. 1, 1730. He lived at Sharon (except in 1761, when he is described as "of Canaan, Conn.") until 1764, when he was at Great Barrington, Mass. He soon went to Nobletown, Albany County, N.Y., (now Hillsdale, Columbia County), and in 1785, describing himself as of this place, and in 1791, describing himself as of Great Barrington, sold his Alford real estate. He served in 1757 in Capt. Saml. Dunham's (of Sharon) Co. of Militia. He (or possibly his son William) served in the Revolution in the Albany County Militia (Land Bounty Rights), 9th Regt., under Col. Van Ness, his name appearing in Capt. Tanner's (3rd) Company, as private, and in Capt. Graves' (3rd) Company as Second Lieutenant. No dates in regard to his service are obtainable. It is probably he, and not his son, that appears in the Census of 1790 at Hillsdale, his family consisting of one male and two females. There was also a William "Tichenor" at Granville, Mass., with the same family, but there is no further record at this place. It is also probably he that appears in the Census of 1800 at Hillsdale, his family consisting of one male 16-26, one male over 45, one female 10-16, and one female over 45, but it seems pretty clear that the boy and the girl could not have been his children. It also seems reasonable to assume that he had no unmarried sons in 1790. A deed in 1803 refers to his farm at Hillsdale. The compiler has been unable to find a single epitaph at Hillsdale.

He m. Mar. 25, 1756, at Sharon, Rhoda Smith of Salisbury, Conn. She seems to have been living in 1800.

Children, b. Sharon:

25. 1. Joseph<sup>5</sup>, b. Jan. 27, 1756.
26. 2. Benjamin<sup>5</sup>, b. July 23, 1758.
3. William<sup>5</sup>, b. June 4, 1761, the entry describing his father as of Canaan. Evidently "William Tickner, Jr.", who served in the Revolution in the Albany County Militia, (Land Bounty Rights), 9th Regt. Probably he d. by 1790, but see above.
27. 4. Hezekiah<sup>5</sup>, b. Apr. 6, 1764.
5. Charles<sup>5</sup> probably. He served in the Revolution in the Albany County Militia, 9th Regt. in Capt. Tanner's Company as private. He was living in 1781, as per State Treasurer's certificate. No further record of him has been found, and probably he d. soon after, at least before the census was taken, which in this region does not seem to have been before 1793.

(There well may have been other children, born after 1764, but if sons, they must have married by 1790. A daughter, perhaps, was living with him then. See above.)

JONATHAN<sup>4</sup> (William<sup>3</sup>), b. Mar. 28, 1732. With the others of his family, he went to Alford, Mass., in 1764, when he was one of the grantees. In 1791, describing himself as of Green River, Albany County, N.Y. (now Hillsdale, Columbia County), he sold his holdings to his brother Daniel. He served in the Revolution, in New York, in Capt. Christopher Miller's Company of Col. Morris Graham's Regiment of Levies, (State Treasurer's certificates dated April 27, July 31, and Aug. 31, 1780); also in Col. William Malcom's Regiment of Levies; also in Capt. Joseph A. Tanner's (3rd) Company, 9th Regiment, Col. Peter Van Ness, of the Albany County Militia (Land Bounty Rights), (certificate for Ll, 6s, 3d, dated ----- 25, 1781). His name seems to appear twice in the Census of 1790, at Mohawk, N.Y., his family consisting of one male and two females, and at Otsego, N.Y., with the addition of a male under 16. In 1793 he was a grantee, and in 1799 a grantor, in Otsego County, of land on Otsego Creek, in both cases describing himself as "of Otsego Co." In spite of considerable search, no further record of him has been found. No record describes any one of the name as "Jr.", so it does not seem probable that he had a son of the same name, to whom some of the data given here might apply, unless he d. by 1790.

He m. Sept. 6, 1787, Demas Eaton, ("Eton") (Dempster record). This surely seems to be a second marriage.

Children, (no record found of any, but he seems to be the only eligible person to be the father of the following):

28. 1. Roswell<sup>5</sup>, b. about 1755-65. He was m. by 1790.
2. Asahel<sup>5</sup>, b. about 1761. As "Asel" and "Asael", aged 13 in 1779, he served in the Revolution in the Berkshire County, Mass., Militia, Dec. 16, 1776 to March 15, 1777, and from July 12, 1779 to Apr. 12, 1780, from Alford. (See "Mass. Soldiers and Sailors" etc. for further details.) He also served in the 9th Regiment, Albany County Militia, (Land Bounty Rights). No further record found; perhaps he d. by 1790.
3. Jonathan<sup>5</sup>. (?) See above.
29. 4. Anasa H.<sup>5</sup>, b. 1783, according to one account in Schoharie County.

Soldiers and Sailors of the Revolutionary War; N.Y. State Treasurer's Certificates, (at Albany); MSS. record of Rev. James Dempster, missionary in the Mohawk Valley, (in State Library, Albany).

* William<sup>4</sup> seems accounted for to 1784 and had no unmarried son in 1790; the History of Berkshire County states that Daniel<sup>4</sup> had two sons and two daughters, and these are fully identified by deeds in 1802, which preclude the existence of other children living then; Joseph<sup>5</sup> is fully accounted for, except in 1800, when he had one male 26-45 in his family, but as the boy in his family in 1790 is identified pretty clearly, this male does not seem to have been his son, and might be anyone of several members of these families; Hezekiah<sup>5</sup> and Benjamin<sup>5</sup> are accounted for in 1790; moreover Jonathan in 1790 had the only male unaccounted for, who may well be Amasa. However, from his name appearing twice in 1790, as given above, it might be inferred that he changed his residence at that time, thus being listed at both places, and that the son was born after the first and before the second listing. This would make the son too young to be Amasa, but the compiler can give no better solution to this puzzle.

DANIEL<sup>4</sup> (William<sup>3</sup>), b. Feb. 23, 1740/1, Sharon, Conn. His name appears on the payroll, Apr. 3 to Dec. 5, 1761, of Capt. Samuel Elmore's (of Sharon) Company, which saw service in the French and Indian War. After his marriage, he settled at Alford, Mass. In 1773, he was appointed surveyor of the highway, and in 1781 served on a committee of the Congregational Church and was one of the incorporators of the Union Meeting House. He served as sergeant in the Revolution, his complete record being as follows: Sergeant, Capt. Sylvanus Wilcox's Co., Col. John Ashley's (Berkshire Co.) regt.; entered service July 8, 1777; discharged July 26, 1777; service, 19 days with Northern Army; mileage home from camp at Fort Edward (110 miles) allowed; also, same Co. and regt.; entered service Sept. 19, 1777; discharged Oct. 17, 1777; service, 23 days with Northern Army. As given by the census of 1790, his family then consisted of two males over 16, and two females, these evidently being himself and his wife, his son Daniel, and one of his daughters. In the census of 1800, his family consisted of himself and his wife only. He d. Dec. 13, 1801; bur. Alford.

He m. April, 1764, at Sharon, Mehitable Tobey; d. Ephraim and Reliance Tobey of Sharon. Administration on her estate, giving the date of her death as July 29, 1818, states her heirs to be her son Daniel, her daughters Hannah, wife of Cary Reed, and Reliance, widow of Philip Strong, and "the legal heirs of Elijah Tickner", deceased son, all except Daniel residing in New York. She d. July 28, 1818, aged 75 (g.s.); bur. Alford.

JOHN<sup>5</sup> (John<sup>4</sup>, 3), b. May 7, 1750, Sharon, Conn. Res., Sharon. He served in the Revolution, in 1775, in Capt. Samuel Elmore's (of Sharon) Co., (3rd Co.), 4th regiment, being discharged Nov. 24, 1775. In the census of 1790, in which Sharon is included with Litchfield, he is given as a resident of that town, his family consisting of two males over 16, five under 16, and two females, these evidently being his entire family and one other female. Administration on his estate (inventoried at $1501) was granted Dec. 20, 1796 to his widow and son John, both of Sharon, and later part of the property was sold to satisfy debts.

He m. Apr. 30, 1772, at Sharon, Tabitha Strong of Salisbury. In the Census of 1800 her name appears, at Sharon, as the head of a family, which consisted of one male over 26, one between 16 and 26, two under 16, one female over 45 (herself), one between 16 and 26, and one under 16. These last two females were probably not her children, and her son Stephen was probably married at the time, thus accounting for the males. On Jan. 18, 1826, distributors were appointed to distribute to her husband's heirs that part of his estate which was set off as dower to his widow, "now deceased". The distribution was made to the six sons, showing that they were living at that date, but their residences were not given.

ISAAC<sup>5</sup> (Isaac<sup>4</sup>, John<sup>3</sup>), b. about 1757, probably Kent, Conn. He lived at Lebanon, Conn., probably in that part which was later set off as Columbia. His name appears in the Census of 1790 at Lebanon, his family then consisting of three males over 16, four under 16, and two females, but the other two males over 16 could not have been his children. In the Census of 1800, he and his wife and children are all accounted for. He was admitted to the church (now in Columbia) in 1781, and evidently was a man of importance, as on his gravestone he is described as "Esq." He d. May, 1814, aged 57, (g.s.). He and several of his family are buried in the Old Cemetery, Columbia. On his gravestone is the following:

"Think not to find record of their worth
Enblazoned on this perishable stone.
None may presume to set their virtues forth,
None but their Judge can make them fully known."

He m. Esther ----- She d. Aug., 1827, aged 70, (g.s.).

ELISHA<sup>5</sup> (Elisha<sup>4</sup>, John<sup>3</sup>), b. Mar. 25, 1757, Lebanon, Conn. He graduated from Dartmouth College in 1783, receiving the degree of A.M. For the next two years he was the preceptor of Moore's Indian Charity School, a preparatory school connected with the College. He then taught school for about a year at Pittsfield, Mass., after which he removed to Boston, where he thereafter resided. He became principal of the Franklin Public School, retiring in 1794. He then was a prosperous and highly esteemed merchant. He was the originator of the primary schools in Boston, was one of the founders of the first savings bank there (the Provident Institution for Savings), and was active in the establishment of the Massachusetts Mutual Fire Insurance Company. He was an importer of merino sheep and kept a large flock near Hanover, N.H. He was also a deacon of the Old South Church, and prominent in its affairs. He was the author of "English Exercises", which ran into several editions.

He appears in the Census of 1790 at Boston as the head of a family consisting of one adult male, three males under 16, and six females. This evidently includes his son, his wife's children, and others, probably members of her family.

He d. June 23, 1821, at Hanover, N.H., (Boston records), while on a visit there. (Other authorities give different dates.) He was buried in his tomb in the Central Burying Ground, Boston, in 1871, with his wife, being removed to Forest Hills. His will, and a codicil, dated April 10, 1819 and June 9, 1821, mention his Woodward of Hanover, N.H.; his father Elisha, of Lebanon, N.H., gentleman; his friends Abijah White of Watertown, and James Savage; his "daughter-in-law" Lois Curtis of Watertown, and her two sons, Benjamin Robbins Curtis and George Ticknor Curtis; his son George; and his "mother-in-law", "the present wife of my father", (the codicil calling her "mother"). No inventory is on file.

He m. May 23, 1790, at Boston, (Boston records), by Rev. Samuel West, Elizabeth (Billings) Curtis, widow of Dr. Benjamin Curtis, (by whom she had four children); bapt. Oct. 8, 1753, Sharon, Mass.; d. Dr. Curtis was a surgeon in the Revolutionary army, and after that, at Boston. He d. 1784, and she taught school again. She d. Jan. 1, 1819, Boston.

JOHN<sup>5</sup> (Elisha<sup>4</sup>, John<sup>3</sup>), b. Feb. 10, 1761, Lebanon, Conn. He lived at Lebanon, N.H., and Plainfield, N.H. He served in the Revolution, as John "Tickney", March 1 to 26, 1781, as private in Capt. Charles Nelson's Company, in Vermont. He is supposed to have served later as captain in the militia. In the Census of 1790 he appears at Lebanon, his family consisting of two males over 16, and three females. It does not appear who the other male was, and perhaps the census was not taken until after the birth of his second daughter, thus accounting for the females. This census also gives John Ticknor, Jr. at Lebanon, with the same family. As there was no such person in 1790, this seems to be a duplicate entry. In the Census of 1800 his family consisted of two males under 10, two 16-26, one 26-45, four females under 10, one 10-16, one 16-26, and one 26-45. Some of these obviously were not his children.

He d. May 28, 1836, (g.s.). He, his wife, and many descendants are buried in the South Cemetery, Lebanon.

PAUL KNOWLES<sup>5</sup> (Elisha<sup>4</sup>, John<sup>3</sup>), b. May 1, 1763, Lebanon, Conn. In the Census of 1790 he appears at Lebanon, N.H., his family consisting of one male and two females. In 1800, at the same place, it consisted of two males under 10, one 16-26, one 26-45, one female 10-16, and one 26-45. One of these males is not accounted for, and he had at least three daughters living in 1800. Deane says he had sons Isaac and Paul, and "six daughters". He d. Feb. 14, 1830, aged 67, (g.s.). He, his wife, his son Isaac, and all his daughters except Annette, are buried in the School Street Cemetery, Lebanon.

JOSHUA<sup>5</sup> (Elisha<sup>4</sup>, John<sup>3</sup>), b. Feb. 28, 1765, Lebanon, Conn. He seems to be the one who was at Turlon, Otsego County, N.Y. in 1794. In 1802, describing himself as of Sharon, Schoharie County, he was a grantee of land in Broome County, where he evidently settled for a few years, as in 1805, describing himself as of Lisle, and again in 1807 (with wife Lydia), his residence not given, he sold his holdings to his brother Elias. No further record of him or his family has been found. Deane describes him as "of Illinois".

He m. Oct. 11, 1789, at Lebanon, Conn., Lydia Brooks.

ELIAS<sup>5</sup> (Elisha<sup>4</sup>, John<sup>3</sup>), b. Apr. 8, 1769, Lebanon, Conn. He was one of the early settlers at what is now Triangle, in Broome County, N.Y., then part of Lisle, in Tioga County. According to tradition he came there in 1795, but his name is not found there in the Census of 1800. The first conveyance to him, in which he is described as of Deerfield, Oneida County, is dated Oct. 3, 1805, Joshua Ticknor of Lisle, evidently his brother, being the grantor. He is grantee in another deed from Joshua Ticknor in 1807, his residence not being given. The place of his settlement was about three miles north of the present town of Triangle, and he seems to have lived there until his death. Administration on his estate, stating that he d. Nov. 18, 1843, intestate, was granted.

JOSEPH<sup>5</sup> (William<sup>4</sup>, <sup>3</sup>), b. Jan. 27, 1756, Sharon, Conn. He was a farmer, and lived at Hillsdale, N.Y., until about 1803, when he removed to Scipio, Cayuga County, where he spent most of the rest of his life, finally residing at Venice. In the Census of 1790 he appears at Hillsdale, his family consisting of himself, one male under 16, and four females. In the Census of 1800 he also appears at Hillsdale, his family then consisting of one male under 10, one 10-16, one 16-26, one 26-45, one over 45, and two females under 10, two 10-16, one 16-26, and one 26-45. The first male seems to have been his son William and the next his son Joseph (who was also the boy in the Census of 1790), but the next is not accounted for. The females all seem to be accounted for, but one more daughter was apparently born after 1800.

Although his name is not found in any of the printed works on the subject, he served in the Revolution, as appears from his affidavit, executed Sept. 24, 1832, on file in the U. S. Pension office, upon which he was granted a pension. As this affidavit contains the only personal narrative known to the compiler of any Ticknor in the Revolution, it is given here substantially in full. Joseph Ticknor deposed that "He resided in the town of Nobletown (now Hillsdale) Columbia County, N.Y. during the Revolutionary War. That about the last of May or first of June, 1776, he enlisted in the New York State troops for six months under Capt. James Spencer ...; that he served in the regiments commanded by Col. Van Dyke; General Schuyler commanded the army; that he went to Lake George and thence to Fort Ann; that they remained there until about 6 weeks before the expiration of the term of enlistment when they marched back to the Lake again, remained there until his time was out; was then dismissed. That some time in the summer of 1777 (he believes in August) the militia company which he belonged to were called out, that they went to Fort Edward, remained there about 2 weeks, when he with one half of the company were allowed to go home to harvest their wheat. .... He returned to his company which was then at Saratoga on the east side of the river. Capt. Graves was his Captain. Col. Ford, commandant. .... That after Burgoyne surrendered he was dismissed having been there in the whole about 5 weeks. That he was called out again in the fall of 1778 (thinks it was in Oct.), that the Company were ordered to Greenbush, then to Albany, marched 5 miles up the river, then were ordered back to Albany again. .... That he was out about one month, and then was marched home. Was called out again about the first of June, 1779, under Capt. Holly or Hawley, ... Col. Ford; that he went to Cherry Valley to guard the fort, that while he was there the Indians and Tories came to Springfield, that he went with the forces stationed in the fort to drive them off. When he got there the Indians had taken the men prisoners and drove off the cattle of the inhabitants; that the company pursued, on the trail, the Oneidas acting in concert with his party, ambushed the hostile Indians and fired upon them and killed 17 of them and the rest made their escape with their prisoners and that his party then returned with the cattle that had been drove off, ... he was then dismissed. That he was called out again in the fall of the same year (he cannot state the time). That he went to Albany where they got ammunition and provision, then went to the Mohawk River to oppose the Indians and Tories. .... The engagement was near the house of Esq. Fundy. That he was out about 2 weeks and then the company returned home. That he has served, reckoning only the terms above described, ten months and about one week."

His will, dated Aug. 3, 1837, in which he describes himself as "aged 80 years and upwards", mentions his children as given below, and the husbands of the daughters. In the case of his daughter Rhoda, he mentions his "grand-daughter Clarissa Bliss, daughter of my oldest daughter Rhoda, now deceased." In the petition Clarissa Bliss is stated to be the wife of Dillon Bliss. He d. "on or about" May 9, 1839.

His wife is supposed to have been a Reid or Reed. He evidently survived her.

BENJAMIN<sup>5</sup> (William<sup>4</sup>, 3), b. July 23, 1758, Sharon, Conn. He served in the Revolution in the Albany County Militia, 9th Regt., in Capt. Tanner's (3rd) Company, also in the 8th Regt., in Capt. Graves' Company; also in Vermont, Feb. 1 to Dec. 1, 1780, in Capt. Parmelee Allen's Company of Rangers; also from Alford, Mass., July 17 to Oct. 26, 1780 as one of the six months men raised by the town of Alford, serving in Capt. Sylvanus Smith's Company, Col. Timothy Bigelow's (15th) Regt.; also from Ashford, Mass., in same Company, his name appearing on several payrolls. Evidently there is some error as to the length of his Vermont service. In the Census of 1790, he appears at Mohawk, Montgomery County, N.Y., his family consisting of himself, his wife, and another female. No further record of him has been found.

He m. Elizabeth Serviss.

HEZEKIAH<sup>5</sup> (William<sup>4</sup>, 3), b. Apr. 6, 1764, Sharon, Conn. He served in the Revolution in the Albany County Militia, 9th Regt., in Capt. Tanner's (3rd) Company. He was a farmer and lived at Hillsdale, N. Y., where his name appears in the Census of 1790, his family consisting of himself, his wife, and one boy. In the Census of 1800 his family consisted of himself, his wife, one male 10-16, three males under 10, one female 16-26, one female 10-16, and two females under 10. He d. Mar. 15, 1826.

28.

ROSWELL<sup>5</sup> (Jonathan<sup>4</sup>, William<sup>3</sup>), b. about 1755-65. His military service is the only public record of him found. He served in the Revolution, from Alford, Mass., as private in Capt. Peter Ingersoll's Company, Col. David Brewer's (9th) Regt., beginning May 19, 1775, roll dated Aug. 1, 1775, service two months, one week; also as per two undated rolls of the same company, in one of which he is reported to have died July 20, 1775; but as there was an order to him for money in lieu of bounty coat dated Dec. 20, 1775, the report of his death seems erroneous. According to tradition he was captured by the British "and never heard from again", but this may refer to the War of 1812, or his son Jason. He seems to have d. by 1812. Although he must have been married and had at least two children by 1790, his name is not found in the Census.

He m. "Minerva Thorp" (but his son Jason seems to be confused with him). She m. (2), according to all accounts, a Mr. Dayton. They were living at Buffalo in 1812, and had a daughter Laura, who m. James Ward of Illinois.

Descendants usually spell the name "Tickner".

Children, places of births not known, (there were "7 sons"):

82. 1. Roswell<sup>6</sup>, b. about 1785 or so. He was married and had children by about 1806.
83. 2. Jason<sup>6</sup>, b. May 13, 1788 (family record). "He was very familiar with Hartford and New Haven, Conn."
3. Holcomb<sup>6</sup>; settled in "Connot, Pa." (No such place; at Conneautville, Pa., and Conneaut, O., there were other lines of Tickners, and no record of Holcomb has been found at either place.)
84. 4. Asahel<sup>6</sup>, b. about 1792. (Also called "Asel").
5. Tamsie<sup>6</sup>; m. ---- Westover.

(Census of 1800), but was at Alford in 1803, when he sold real estate there. He perhaps lived at New Lebanon, N.Y., after that. In the Census of 1790, he is given at Alford, with one son. He was a pioneer of the Methodist Church there. His will, in which he described himself as of Canaan, N.Y., dated Apr. 9, 1813, probated Aug. 25, 1813, mentions his wife Zilpha, appointing her executrix, and giving her the use of his whole estate for ten years, at the end of which time it was to be divided between her and his children (as given below).

He m. Zilpha ----. (Perhaps she was a Tobey, as she and various Tobey's joined in several conveyances in Columbia County.) On Nov. 22, 1822, administration on her estate was granted to Oran Tickner, she having left "goods of Elijah Tickner unadministered", "Oran Tickner to fulfil said Elijah's will".

DANIEL<sup>5</sup> (Daniel<sup>4</sup>, William<sup>3</sup>), b. Apr. 12, 1769, Alford, Mass. He lived at Alford and Great Barrington. In the Census of 1800 he appears at Alford, as Daniel Tickner, Jr., his family consisting of himself, his wife, and two males under 10, but his and his wife's ages are given as 16 to 26. He served in the Massachusetts Militia, in the 1st regiment, 1st brigade, 9th division, being commissioned ensign Sept. 22, 1804, lieutenant May 16, 1809, and being discharged Jan. 28, 1812. He d. business as a publisher, with John Allen, under the name of Allen & Ticknor, they being successors of the house of Carter, Hendee & Co. Mr. Allen retired the next year, and Mr. Ticknor carried on the business in his own name for the next twelve years, during which time he published the early American editions of Tennyson, and of many New England authors. In 1845 John Reed and James T. Fields became his partners, the imprint being changed to Ticknor, Reed and Fields, the firm name remaining William D. Ticknor & Co., during his lifetime. Mr. Reed retired in 1854, the imprint for the next ten years being the well known one of Ticknor and Fields. During this period they purchased and published the "Atlantic Monthly" and the "North American Review". After his death his sons continued the firm, which after various changes became absorbed in the present house of Houghton Mifflin Co. The publications of the house were always characterized by intrinsic merit and the neatness and correctness of their typography. Mr. Ticknor was the first American publisher to make payment for the works of foreign authors, a check sent to Tennyson in 1842 establishing a precedent which was ever afterwards adhered to. For many years the office of the firm was in the old building on the corner of Washington and School Streets, familiar in illustrated works on Boston as the "Old Corner Bookstore". This was the resort of Dickens, Emerson, Hawthorne, Holmes, Longfellow, Lowell, Sumner, Thackeray, Whipple, Whittier, and many others, of whom Mr. Ticknor was the friend and adviser, as well as publisher. Hawthorne was, undoubtedly, his closest friend in this group, and for an account of his relations with him, covering many years and several extended trips, see "Hawthorne and His Publisher", by Caroline Ticknor, 1913. Ticknor was with Hawthorne, on a trip to Philadelphia, when he d. suddenly, Apr. 10, 1864. He and his descendants are buried in the Ticknor lot, in the older part of Mount Auburn Cemetery.

Let  $\mu$  be a measure on  $X$ . For any measurable function  $f$  on  $X$ , we define the integral of  $f$  over  $X$  with respect to  $\mu$  as follows:

$$\int_X f d\mu = \int_X f^+ d\mu - \int_X f^- d\mu$$

where  $f^+$  and  $f^-$  are the positive and negative parts of  $f$ , respectively. This definition is consistent with the one for non-negative functions.

For any measurable function  $f$  on  $X$ , we have the following properties:

$$\begin{aligned} \int_X cf d\mu &= c \int_X f d\mu \\ \int_X (f+g) d\mu &= \int_X f d\mu + \int_X g d\mu \\ \int_X f d\mu &= \int_X f d\mu \end{aligned}$$

Let  $f$  and  $g$  be measurable functions on  $X$ . If  $f \leq g$  almost everywhere, then  $\int_X f d\mu \leq \int_X g d\mu$ . This is a consequence of the monotonicity of the integral.

Let  $f$  be a measurable function on  $X$ . If  $f$  is integrable, then  $\int_X f d\mu = 0$  if and only if  $f = 0$  almost everywhere.

Let  $f$  and  $g$  be measurable functions on  $X$ . If  $f$  and  $g$  are both integrable, then  $\int_X (f+g) d\mu = \int_X f d\mu + \int_X g d\mu$ .

Let  $f$  be a measurable function on  $X$ . If  $f$  is integrable, then  $\int_X f d\mu = \int_X f d\mu$  for any measurable set  $A$  in  $X$ .

Let  $f$  be a measurable function on  $X$ . If  $f$  is integrable, then  $\int_X f d\mu = \int_X f d\mu$  for any measurable set  $A$  in  $X$ .

OTHER EARLY IMMIGRANTS.

HENRY, or HENRIE "TICKNALL" "is the name of a passenger embarking at London in the Hopewell, in the autumn of 1635, aged only 15; but whether he ever reached Boston, or where he sat down, is untold". (Savage's Gen. Dict.; for shipping lists see Mass. Hist. Soc. Coll., 3rd ser., vol. 8, and Hotten's Lists).

HENRY TICKNOR was plaintiff in behalf of the owners of the ship Dove, at Boston, Sept. 13, 1675. (Noble's Records of the Court of Assistants, Mass. Bay). He is probably the one, a "cook at Muncks", taxed at Boston, June 6, 1687, as the head of a family, and in 1688. (Bos. Rec. Com. Rep., vol. 1). Perhaps these were the same person, but no other record has been found.

THOMAS TICKNOR appears on the parish register at St. Michael's, Barbadoes, in 1690, with wife, no chn, 2 servants and 3 slaves. (Hotten's Lists).

ISAAC TICKNOR, wheelwright, aged 24, from Surrey, Eng., as an indentured servant, was a passenger on the Brilliant, March, 1774, which sailed from London to Virginia. (Shipping Lists of Port of London, in N. E. H. G. Register, vol. 63.) His name does not appear in the Census of 1790.

There was also a Tignor family, early in Virginia, several families of that name appearing in the Census of 1790.

MARTIN TICHENOR was at New Haven 1644, and later removed to Newark, N. J. Apparently he was the ancestor of those of the name in America, his descendants being very numerous. Nearly all preserve the spelling "Tichenor", with occasional variations, (such as "Teachenor",) but always with the "he" in the name. The compiler has considered this family absolutely distinct, and has made no effort to collect records of it. There is no evidence connecting Martin Tichenor with William Tickner, and in those days of phonetic spelling, when names were spelled in every conceivable way, the almost universal retention of the "he" in this family and the "k" in the Ticknor family, seem to negative any close relationship. Very little appears in print about this family, and the reader is referred to Munsell's Index, and to an account of one branch of the family, by Richard Bennington Teachenor, Kansas City, Mo., 1918.

The name TICHNOR is a German or Jewish name, which the compiler has found to be continually confused with the name of Ticknor either through error or the intentional change of name by those who bore it. It is also true that the name Ticknor sometimes appears in public records misspelled "Tichnor", a fact which has added to the difficulty of preparing this work.

PHILADELPHIA FAMILIES.

The compiler in order to investigate thoroughly the various families named Tickner and Ticknor living at Philadelphia, had the church and other records, wills, deeds, directories to 1870, etc., searched by the Historical Society of Pennsylvania. The result of this search was that these families were eliminated as descendants of William Tickner of Scituate, but it seems desirable to give such records as have been found, meagre as they are. The compiler regrets his inability to interest more than a few descendants.

The following record, names of parents and places of births unknown (except as noted) was sent the compiler, and evidently is that of a family in England. At any rate there is no evidence connecting this family with any in America.

1. Maria, b. Feb. 28, 1791.
2. 2. George, b. Nov. 21, 1792.
3. Sarah, b. Feb. 21, 1795.
4. Ann, b. Jan. 18, 1797.
5. William, b. Nov. 3, 1798; seems to be the painter at Phila. 1859-61.
3. 6. John, b. Oct. 9, 1800.
7. Jane, b. Oct. 31, 1802.
8. Francis, b. Oct. 20, 1804.
4. 9. Peryer, b. Feb. 26, 1807, according to tradition in England.
10. Harriet, b. Dec. 13, 1809.
5. 11. Robert, b. July 27, 1813; seems to be the one whose record follows.
12. Emma, b. Sept. 23, 1815.

(No further record, except as noted, has been found of the above.)
Mr. George W. Ticknor.

GEORGE<sup>2</sup>, b. Nov. 21, 1792. He appears at Phila. in 1833, and was there almost continually until 1865, his occupation being given as farmer, fringe manufacturer, varieties, and storekeeper. His will, dated March 16, 1863, mentions the four grandchildren below, children of his late daughter Ann Maria, wife of Joshua Wood, and refers to his brother "Puryer" Ticknor. He d. Sept. 21, 1876, aged 84; bur. Evergreen Cemetery, Camden, N. J., in lot of Samuel Ashton.
